

A Letter

McCloud, California, Siskiyou County June 20, 1913, Chariton Courier Keytesville, Mo.—I received the sample copies of the Courier you sent and was well pleased with them. The two issues had more news (outside of local option dope) than the other home paper had in a whole year, that I've been taking, and while I am sending my subscription will try and give you an idea of what the place we call home is like. McCloud is built by the McCloud River Lumber Co. and is in the valley of the McCloud River. It is a miniature city having all that pertains to a city save size and population. This city has two big saw mills, sash and door factory, box factory, plowing and lath mills, round house, car and machine shops, also owns its own railroad. These two mills cut nearly 500,000 feet every run of ten hours and are running night and day. About 85 percent is pine and this company cuts more lumber than any other mill in the world. There are 700 residences in this town equipped with water and electric lights, a good hotel for transients and employees who prefer that way of living. Church services are provided, a library is furnished, an opera house and good schools. We also have one of the best hospitals in the state. While this is a healthy climate and as a usual thing not much sickness in McCloud the hospital is nearly always full. Men are continually getting hurt in and around these factory and mills and then to say so many people from a distance come here for treatment. This is a model lumber camp. Several fine lumber homes are here on the river and an automobile road has been constructed down the river thru the great pine forests to the station on the line of the southern Pacific known as Castle Crag. The great physical feature of this place is Mt. Shasta and above this place is Mt. Shasta and about this snow-capped mountain at 14,444 feet high are grouped hot springs, mineral and soda springs, also springs as clear as a crystal and as cold as ice. It is from one of these springs the water comes that supplies the town. We have lots of snow here in winter, but very little rain in summer. There is no fruit raised here except a few berries. We are furnished all the water we want for irrigation but the seasons are too short to raise much except garden and that must be something that will stand the frost. It is never very cold or very warm here, it being protected on all sides by mountains. At no time last winter it was colder than 4 above zero. My husband has the contract of all the painting for the company hires his own help and pays $4.00 per day. The lowest wages paid a white man here is $2.50 per day. This company has at present over 3,000 men on the pay roll and have been working short-handed ever since the mill started in April. The mills close down in November for the winter. Siskiyou is not only rich in timber but is a mining county as well. It still produces about $1,000,000 in gold annually and rich deposits are being found every year. Considerable ground has not yet been prospected.

Placer mining has been carried on for over sixty years and there are rich gravel beds still along the Klamath river. At one place along this great gold stream $1,800,000 was taken out in a few seasons. Placer mines are successfully worked at nine or ten places in this county. Rich discoveries of copper have recently been made, but with all its riches of gold, its vast forests of pine and its beautiful rivers and mountains, it doesn't appeal to me like old Missouri; home sweet home. I am sending you a money order for which send me the Courier one year.

Yours respectfully,
Mrs. Julia Stoner.

C. O. D. by Parcel Post

Parcel post mail may be sent collect on delivery beginning July 1. The local postoffice has received final instructions for the establishment of this new feature of Uncle Sam's latest postal service venture.

The collection fee will be 10 cents in parcel post stamps affixed to the package by the sender. This fee insures the package to the amount of $50, and the amount to be collected must not exceed $100. The usual money order fee will be charged for the return of the sum collected to the consignor.

These c. o. d. packages will be accepted for mailing only to offices where money orders are sold. If a c. o. d. package is received at a non-money order office it may be delivered by the consent of the consignor. If the consignor does not consent, the package must be returned to point of origin and return postage paid by the postmaster making the error.

The addressed will not be permitted to examine the contents of a c. o. d. parcel until it has been receipted for and the charges paid. A parcel may be refused when tendered for delivery but after acceptance it cannot be returned on account of dissatisfaction with the contents or the amount collected.

The postoffice department will not be responsible for errors created by senders in stating the collection charges for any misunderstanding between senders and addressees regarding the character or contents of parcels.

Tobacco Germicide

Tobacco kills germs. This is comfort for the user of the weed. A cigar was impregnated with water combined with virulent germs to the extent of 100,000 to the cubic centimeter. 24 hours later every germ in that cigar was dead.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

After the report had been circulating for many years to the effect that J. Pierpont Morgan was wealthy it seems the wealth has simmered down to a mere $100,000,000.

It is said one of the local boys got a good scare while swimming in the Musselfork last week. He got tangled up in the water and had to be hauled out by a good Samaritan who was close by.

The contractor will commence work on the new postoffice at Brookfield in July.

Take Plenty of Time to Eat

There is a saying that "rapid eating is a slow suicide." If you have formed the habit of eating too rapidly you are most likely suffering from indigestion or constipation, which will result eventually in serious illness unless corrected. Digestion begins in the mouth. Food should be thoroughly masticated and insalivated. Then when you have a fullness of the stomach or feel dull and stupid after eating, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets. Many severe cases of stomach trouble and constipation have been cured by the use of these tablets. They are easy to take and most agreeable in effect. Sold by all dealers.

Everybody's Doing It

Last week, says the Sumner Star, almost everybody got hurt. Miss Winifred Ballew has a broken arm. The machine kicked when she tried to crank it. Mrs. C. J. Lisetor fell off of the stile block at the cemetery and injured her back. Louis Ingenhousz's team ran away tearing up the wagon and smashing eggs by the case lots, damage $30. Mrs. Frank Shoemaker and son were driving to their home when the horse was frightened and ran off. The result was, buggy overturned and occupants dumped out. No damage. Sam Robinson wound up the hurt-fest by falling off a ladder while picking cherries, onto a cement walk which is somewhat dented. Sam is also dented. That's all.

Squirrel Season Here

Tuesday, July 1 opened the season for squirrels in this vicinity. The "tree frogs" have had a hard time of it this Spring and there are not so many of them as there otherwise might have been. Before the season opened it is reported hazily that quite a few of the nimrods took advantage of the simplicity and trustfulness of the baby squirrels and got up on their blind side, much to the disadvantage of the now deceased. The clearing of the Applegate timber will also take away a nesting place and "feeder" for other groves in this vicinity. Before this timber was touched by axe, for years, Mr. Applegate allowed no one to hunt in it. The result was that the squirrels nested and developed undisturbed. Hunters have been present this year and have routed the squirrels. The time is not far distant when the squirrels will be as scarce as bullfrogs were this year. They will be practically extinct excepting in groves like that of Mr. Hyde where no hunting is allowed and facilities for breeding are plentiful.

The Peevish Child Needs a Laxative

It is natural for a child to laugh and play when it feels drowsy or cries when it feels something physical is the matter. If you see no evidence of a serious ailment you will not be wrong if you quietly give it a dose of mild laxative that evening on putting it to bed.

The remedy most generally recommended for this purpose is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which mothers throughout the country have been giving their children for a quarter of a century. Today thousands of families are using it where hundreds used it then, and there must be good reason for this word of mouth recommendation.

It is admittedly the perfect laxative for children, women, old people and all others who need a gentle bowel stimulant and not a violent salt, cathartic pill or doctored water. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will act gently, and when taken before retiring will bring complete satisfaction in the morning.

After a short use of this remedy all forms of outside aid can be dispensed with and nature will again act alone.

All classes of good American people keep it in the home for all of the stomach, liver and bowels, and among the thousands who have written the doctor that they will never be without it are Mrs. N. B. Beard, 1594 Locust St., Kansas City, Mo., and Mrs. J. M. Hammett, Independence, Mo. A dose of it has saved many a person from a serious illness.

Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 415 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.
